American Farmland Trust

Spring 1993

American Farmland Trust is a private, nonprofit conservation organization founded in 1980 to protect the nation's agricultural resources. AFT works to stop the loss of productive farmland and to promote farming practices that lead to a healthy environment. Its action-oriented programs include public education, technical assistance in policy development and direct farmland protection practices. Minimum annual membership is $20. For membership information, contact the National Office. For information on cost of community services studies, contact the Northeastern Office.
